

EQUITY-CENTERED GRANT WRITING

What is the focus of On the Margins' (OTM) work?

Our work centers the struggles of those who lie on the margins of society. Inspired by Dr. Kimberlé Chrenshaw's article "Mapping the margins: Intersectionality, identity politics, and violence against women of color," we exist at the intersection of feminism and anti-racism to de-marginalize the margins.

What kind of equity-centered grant writing services do you provide?

We address systemic oppression and focus on equitable grant seeking and grant writing to support communities on the margins of society. We assist stakeholders in implementing anti-racist, trauma-informed, joy-focused, equitable, sustainable, and affirming programs, practices, initiatives, and policies.

Who does OTM work with?

OTM consultants provide personal, professional, and leadership consulting to those in pursuit of justice and liberation. We work with those looking to pay attention to and change, through bold and sustainable action, the structures and systems of power that contribute to the traumatic experiences and dehumanization of communities on the margins of society.

How much does it cost to work with OTM?

Our prices vary, depending on the services and packages selected. Please email us at contactus@onthemargins.us to find out more, or book a free intake appointment at <https://www.onthemargins.us/appointment>
